DESIGNATION POLICY: Designated dollars to individual agencies are included in the total amount each agency receives from the United Way. This amount or allocation is determined through the citizens review process, conducted by community volunteers. If total designations exceed the allocation, the agency receives the greater amount. In the event that an agency is defunded for any reason, or in the unlikely event the Board of Trustees perceives needs elsewhere in the community that are greater, an agency's designated gifts will be reassigned to other programs in the same targeted goal area.
